

The Modelica Association Project (MAP) Functional Mock-up Interface (FMI)
Corporate Contributor License Agreement ("CCLA")
<http://www.fmi-standard.org/licenses/>

In order to clarify the intellectual property license granted with respect to Contributions, as further defined, from any person or entity, the Modelica Association Project FMI (the "Project") must have a Corporate Contributor License Agreement (CCLA) on file that has been signed by each Contributor, indicating agreement to the license terms below. This license is for your protection as a contributor as well as for the protection of the FMI Project, and for the Modelica Association as publisher of the FMI standard and its users; it does not change your rights to use your own Contributions for any other purpose.

This CCLA allows an entity (the "Corporation") to submit Contributions to the FMI Project, to authorize Contributions submitted by its designated employees to the Project, and to grant copyright and patent licenses thereto.

Please complete and sign, then scan and email a pdf file of this Agreement to projectleader@fmi-standard.org and send the original signed Agreement to:

and indirectly sublicense, to copy, publish, and distribute the Contribution in the FMI Specification, and to prepare derivative works that are based on or incorporate all or part of the Contribution solely for the purpose of developing, promoting and distributing the FMI Specification.

3. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, You hereby grant to the Modelica Association and to licensees of FMI Specifications distributed by the Modelica Association, including the C header and XML-schema therein, a worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free patent license for the whole duration of such patent protection to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work, where such license applies only to those patent claims licensable by You that are necessarily infringed by Your Contribution(s) alone or by combination of Your Contribution(s) with the Work to which such Contribution(s) were submitted.

6. Should You wish to submit work that is not Your original creation, You may submit it to the Project separately from any Contribution, identifying the complete details of its source and of any license or other restriction (including, but not limited to, related patents, trademarks, and license agreements) of which you are personally aware, and conspicuously marking the work as "Submitted on behalf of a third-party: [named here]".

7. It is your responsibility to notify the Project when any change is required to the list of designated employees authorized to submit Contributions on behalf of the Corporation, or to the Corporation's Point of Contact with the Project.

8. To the extent permitted by applicable law, no claim shall be made against You for direct, indirect, consequential, special, incidental or punitive damages, including, without limitation, loss of use, profit, revenue, or goodwill, whether based in contract, tort, or otherwise, arising out of, resulting from or in any way relating to the use of Your Contribution(s) by Project or any other entity or company.

However, in case a claim should be brought by a third party against one or several of the other contributors and/or against members of the Modelica Association Project FMI arising out of, resulting from or in any way relating to the FMI Specification nothing herein shall prevent said contributor and/or member respectively from claiming reimbursement and/or indemnification from You to the extent the third party claim is based on Your Contribution(s).

9. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of Sweden. The Courts of Stockholm shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear any dispute arising out of or in connection with the interpretation and/or performance of this Agreement.
